Accordingly the complainants were advised to fulfill the mandatory requirements for further process in the matters. However, despite several notices, followed by reminders and telephone calls, none of them has responded or completed the codal formalities.

DECISION

4. In view of the above, it seems that the complainants have lost their interest to pursue their respective complaints. I, therefore, in exercise of powers vested in me under Section 10(10) of the Act, 1991 (as amended upto date), do hereby dispose of these complaints on account of non-solemn prosecution.

Given under my hand and seal of office.
