COMPLAINT:

Mst. Jando submitted a complaint dated 12.05.2025 against the Local Government / Town Committee Khadro alleging non-release of her enhanced family pension and proper fixation of the same. She contended that despite making several requests and personal visits to the concerned department, her grievance remained unaddressed, causing her financial hardship and distress. The complainant, being the rightful beneficiary of the family pension, emphasized that the delay in enhancement and fixation was unjustified and in violation of her legal entitlement. Left with no alternative remedy, she approached this Institution seeking intervention for the immediate resolution of her long-pending issue and payment of the enhanced family pension in accordance with applicable rules and notifications.

3. This office issued a notice to the Town Committee Khadro vide letter dated 15.05.2025. In response, the Town Officer, Town Committee Khadro, Taluka Sanjhorro, submitted a report stating that the matter had been referred to the higher authorities, specifically the Director, Local Fund Audit Karachi, for fixation of the pension. In this regard, a formal letter bearing No. TCK/238/2025 dated 27.05.2025 was addressed to the Director, Local Fund Audit Karachi, and a copy is available in the case file. Subsequently, during the proceedings, the agency submitted a further report stating that the complainant, Mst.
