Subject : ALLEGED DELAY AND NON-COOPERATION OF AVLC LANDHI IN RECOVERY OF MOTORBIKE SNATCHED FROM KORANGI INDUSTRIAL AREA AND RECOVERED BY POLICE STATION NASIRABAD, DISTRICT LARKANA.

COMPLAINT

Mr. Faizan Hameed lodged a complaint on 02.09.2025 against the Anti-Vehicle Lifting Cell (AVLC), Landhi, alleging non-cooperation and undue delay in the recovery and handing over of his motorbike, which had been snatched from Korangi Industrial Area and later recovered by Police Station Nasirabad, District Qamber-Shahdadt @ Qamber.

PROCEEDINGS

2. The matter was referred to the Police for a report. In response, the SIP Abdul Hameed of P.S Landhi, vide letter dated: 01.10.2025, reported that the complainant's motorcycle had indeed been recovered from District Qamber-Shahdadt. It was stated that, as per procedure, the complainant was required to approach the court of competent jurisdiction for release of the vehicle. However, according to the Police, the complainant was not pursuing his case despite issuance of notices.

FINDINGS

3. The record shows that the complainant's motorbike was recovered from District Qamber-Shahdadt and therefore falls under the jurisdiction of the local courts and police authorities of that district. In such cases, the standard legal procedure requires the rightful owner to file an application before the jurisdictional court for release of property recovered in connection with a criminal case.

DECISION

4. In view of the above, the complainant is advised to pursue the matter before the court of competent jurisdiction in District Qamber-Shahdadt for release of the recovered motorbike.

Given under my hand and seal of office.
