COMPLAINT

During the Khuli Katchehri held on 25.09.2025 in District Korangi, a complaint was received from Mr. Mumtaz Sindhu, regarding the alleged operation of a gambling den being run under the cover of a snooker and gaming setup, located on the green belt in front of LS-3, Sector 48/H, Korangi (16000 Road). It was reported that:

- (i) The place was being misused for gambling and other unlawful activities.
- (ii) Idle and misguided youngsters gathered there till late hours, causing nuisance to residents.
- (iii) Youngsters used abusive and foul language, resulting in harassment and disturbance to the public.

PROCEEDINGS

2. The matter was referred to the Deputy Commissioner, Korangi, SSP Korangi, and Municipal Commissioner, TMC Korangi for report.
3. In response, the Deputy Director (Legal), TMC Korangi, vide letter dated: 14.10.2025, stated that action against gambling and other unlawful activities falls outside the administrative and legal jurisdiction of TMC Korangi. It was clarified that under the Sindh Local Government Act, 2013, municipal responsibilities are largely confined to civic services, whereas prevention of social evils is listed only as an optional function under Section 87(2)(l), and TMC lacks authority to initiate criminal proceedings.
4. The SHO, P.S Zaman Town, vide letter dated 16.11.2025, reported that following inquiry, FIR No.1294/2025 under Section 5-A of the Gambling Act was registered on 14.11.2025 against the gambling den operating under the guise of a snooker club. Two accused, Muhammad Naeem S/o Muhammad Jamal and Muhammad Yaseen s/o Muhammad Yameen, were arrested from the spot.

FINDINGS

5. The Police, upon intervention from this Office, acted promptly, conducted an inquiry, registered a FIR, and arrested individuals involved in the unlawful gambling activities. This demonstrates that the core law-and-order concerns have been addressed.
