Mr. Tufail Ahmed filed a complaint dated 03.06.2025 against the Social Welfare Department, Government of Sindh, regarding irregular functioning of a registered association, namely Nazimabad Residence Association (NRA), Nazimabad No. 4, Karachi. The complaint states that NRA has failed to conduct mandatory elections. Despite repeated complaints by local residents, no effective action has been taken by the Department.

It was further alleged that the founder of NRA fraudulently collected Rs. 15,000 from each household on the pretext of installing a water supply line, whereas the same was already installed by Karachi Water & Sewerage Corporation (KW&SC). This act amounts to misappropriation of funds and raises serious concerns of corruption and misuse of public money. Despite approaching the concerned authorities, the matter has not been resolved. Being aggrieved, the complainant sought the intervention of the Ombudsman Sindh in the matter.
