Subject : PENDING SETTLEMENT OF RETIREMENT DUES BY MUNICIPAL COMMITTEE THATTA.

THE COMPLAINT:

Mr. Amjad Masih S/o Patras Masih filed a complaint dated 19.06.2023 against the Municipal Committee Thatta regarding the pending finalization of his retirement dues since 2020.

PROCEEDINGS:

2. The complaint was admitted under Section 10 of the Act and forwarded to the CMO concerned for comments.
3. In response, the agency submitted multiple reports within a short span of time, informing that part payments are being made to all retirees including the complainant through monthly instalments of Rs. 25000/-. The reason for the delay in settlement was attributed shortage of funds.

REJOINDER:

4. A rejoinder was invited from the complainant. The complainant vide letter dated 24.02.2026 acknowledged about regular receiving of monthly instalment of Rs. 25000/- and expressed satisfaction over mode of settlement on intervention of this office.

FINDINGS:

5. Against the total settlement of Rs. 436,463/- pertaining to the complainant, a monthly instalment of Rs. 25,000/- was being paid regularly to all retirees including the complainant. The complainant expressed satisfaction with this mode of payment. Given the circumstances, continuing the investigation would be unnecessary.

DECISION:

6. In view of the above, the complaint is hereby disposed of with a direction to the Municipal officer, Municipal Committee Thatta to ensure complete settlement to all retirees through uninterrupted monthly instalments.
